CHARACTER and CHARM

Welcome home!!

That's how you will feel once you walk into 16 Ann Street.

The current owners of this classic post war home have carried out extensive, quality renovations in recent times. They have created a character and charm that makes this home welcoming and warm.

As well as renovating the inside, they have installed new electrical wiring throughout and also installed insulation.

This home is complete with 3 carpeted bedrooms and two bathrooms, a modern practical kitchen, and open plan living dining area on polished timber floors.

There are so many individual things that create the beauty inside in home; stainless appliances, polished timber floors, marble tiling, raked high ceilings with exposed timber beams... the list goes on.

Outside there is a fantastic built in entertainment space. Put in your own fire pit and you could certainly have some great times with friends outside under the stars.
